Is the City of San Diego's multi-million dollar employee pension disaster unique, or could a similar pension fund crisis occur in other cities? San Diego's pension fund is more than $1.4 billion in the hole. How did this happen in America's Finest City? City Attorney Michael Aguirre will address the issue at the Annual National Association of Local Government Auditor's Conference in San Jose.

Note: The City Attorney's Office has conducted independent investigations regarding San Diego's pension crisis. The interim investigative reports are accessible by visiting www.sandiegocityattorney.org
